

1. What percentage of these students showed interest in this field before applying for this major, and how does this compare with non-majors?
2. Which courses or experiences did these students say were the most influential for their chosen major?
3. What percentage of non-majors are considering switching to a computer major, and what are their objectives or barriers?
4. How do students rate their satisfaction with the support and resources provided by the IT department, and how does this compare between majors and non-majors?
5. Which extracurricular activities or campus organizations do IT majors participate in most often, and how do these compare to non-majors?